Important Questions to Ask when Identifying the Correct Private Care Agency

About the Agency

- ✓ Does your agency conduct a needs assessment to determine care plans?
- ✓ What is your Better Business Bureau rating?
- ✓ Are you certified or accredited?
- ✓ How does your agency protect confidentiality?
- ✓ How do you handle client's rights: freedom to request a different caregiver, cancellation of services, right to review logs regarding care?
- ✓ Do I need a doctor's order for home care?
- ✓ How does your agency handle emergencies?

About the Agency's Caregivers

- ✓ How do you screen, train and supervise caregivers?
- ✓ How do you match caregivers to clients/patients?
- ✓ How is the patient's course of treatment and services documented?
- ✓ Who do we contact with questions or complaints?

About the Agency's Services

- ✓ If necessary, is the care plan overseen by a registered nurse?
- ✓ Do you provide a written schedule of services?
- ✓ Can you help find additional services like Meals on Wheels, etc.?

About Payment and Financials

- ✓ Is your agency certified to take Medicare and /or MassHealth?
- ✓ Does your agency partner with Aging Service Access Points (ASAP) programs that provide subsidized funding for qualified candidates?
- ✓ Do you take commercial or long term care insurance?
- ✓ Do you have payment agreement plans?
- ✓ Do you provide detailed explanations of the costs associated with your services?
- ✓ Does your agency provide guidance to help get financial assistance, if needed?
